This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AS AMENDED BY CHAP. 160, LAWS OF 1867, PASSED MARCH 26, 1867.
AS AMENDED BY CHAP. 423, LAWS OF 1874, PASSED MAY 11, 1874.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Cornelius R. Agnew, Horatio Allen, James W. Beekman, Henry W. Bellows, Francis B. Cutting, John A. Dix, Wolcott Gibbs, John C. Green, George Griswold, David Hoadley, Murray Hoffman, William J. Hoppin, Charles King, Charles H. Marshall, Willard Parker, George T. Strong, Jonathan Sturges, Otis D. Swan, Moses Taylor, and such other persons as now are members of an Association in the City of New York called "The Union League Club," and such persons as hereafter shall become members of the corporation hereby created, are constituted a body corporate, by the name of

"The Union League Club," to be located in the city of New York, to promote, encourage, and sustain, by all proper means, absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States; to discountenance and rebuke, by moral and social influences, all disloyalty to said Government, and every attempt against the integrity of the nation; and, in furtherance of these objects, to establish and maintain a Library and a Gallery of Art and Military Trophies, especially devoted to the perpetuation and illustration of the patriotic services and sacrifices by which the existing struggle against rebellion has been characterized.

SEC. 2. Said corporation shall have power to make and adopt a constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations for the admission, suspension, and expulsion of its members, and their government, the collection of fees and dues, the number and election of its officers, and to define their duties, and for the safe-keeping of its property, and from time to time to alter, modify, or change such constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations. Until an election shall be held pursuant to such constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations, the officers, for the time being, of the Association, mentioned in the first section of this act shall be the officers of the corporation hereby created.

SEC. 3. Said corporation may purchase and hold, or lease, any real or personal estate necessary and proper for the purpose of its incorporation, provided they shall not hold any real estate the value of which shall exceed fifteen hundred thousand dollars; and the said corporation may issue bonds and may execute mortgages upon their real estate to an amount not exceeding the value of such real estate and the improvements thereon.

SEC. 4. Said corporation shall possess the general powers, and be subject to the restrictions and liabilities described in the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB

OF NEW YORK.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

1. The condition of membership shall be absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States, and unwavering support of its efforts for the suppression of the Rebellion.

2. The primary object of the Association shall be to discountenance and rebuke, by moral and social influences, all disloyalty to the Federal Government, and to that end the members will use every proper means in public and private.

3. We pledge ourselves, by every means in our power, collectively and individually, to resist to the uttermost every attempt against the territorial integrity of the nation.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE OF ASSOCIATION, ADOPTED JANUARY 11, 1866.

4. It shall be the duty of the Club to resist and expose corruption, and promote reform in our National, State, and Municipal affairs, and to elevate the idea of American citizenship.

Officers and their duties.

2. The Vice-Presidents shall be divided into three classes of four each. The annual election, to be held on the 14th day of January, 1892, shall be for twelve, who shall classify themselves by lot, four of whom to hold office for two years, and four to hold office for three years; and thereafter each annual election shall be for four to hold office for three years.

In the absence of the President and all the Vice-Presidents, a presiding officer shall be chosen, without ballot, from the members of the Club. The President shall be ex-officio, a member of the Executive and other Standing Committees.

Duties of the Secretary.

4. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Club, and of the Executive Committee and the Committee on Admissions (of which Committees he shall be, ex-officio, a member), and of all matters of which a record shall be deemed advisable by the Club, or by said Committees. The records of the Secretary, except those of the proceedings of the Committee on Admissions, shall at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any member of the Club. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify members of their election, to keep a roll of the members of the Club, to issue notices for all meetings of the Club (with a brief mention of the business to be transacted when a special meeting is called), and to conduct the correspondence. He shall also be the keeper of the seal of the Club.

He shall turn over to the Finance Committee all initiation fees when received, and at the end of each year all surplus and unappropriated moneys which remain in his hands after payment in full of the disbursements and expenses of such year. He shall be, ex-officio, a member of the Executive Committee and Committee on Admissions.

All appropriations of the funds of the Club, except as provided in the 16th By-Law, and all directions for the use of the Hall or Club-rooms for other than for Club purposes, shall be made by the Executive Committee. It shall make all necessary purchases and contracts, but shall have no power to make the Club liable for any debt or debts to an amount exceeding one half that which, at the time of contracting the same, shall be in the Treasurer's hands in cash, and not subject to prior liabilities, or which cannot in the opinion of the Committee be paid out of the income of the current year. At every annual meeting it shall report its proceedings, and may, at any time, recommend such measures as it may deem advisable. The Executive Committee shall appoint a House Committee of three members, and may from time to time declare its duties. Full power and authority is conferred upon the said Finance Committee to collect and receive such income, interest, and profits, and from time to time dispose of the said securities for the purposes aforesaid, and which shall continue to be invested as a reserve fund, until the further resolution of the Club, in relation thereto, adopted upon the same notice which is required for an amendment by these By-Laws.

Neglect of member of Standing or Special Committee to attend meetings.

Neglect on the part of any member of a Standing or Special Committee to attend three consecutive meetings of such Committee shall be deemed a tender of his resignation of his office, which the Committee may accept, unless an explanation

Cushing's Manual shall govern meetings of the Club.

One hundred members shall be a quorum at all meetings of the club.

19. There shall be a monthly meeting for the election of members and the transaction of business on the second Thursday of every month, except July and August, at 8 P.M.

Monthly meetings of the Club.

28. If the conduct of a member shall appear to the Executive Committee to be disorderly, ungentlemanly, in violation of the rules, prejudicial to the interests or character of the Club, or contrary to its Charter or By-Laws; or if, by his acts or conversation, he shall seem to the Committee to manifest a spirit of disloyalty to the Government of the United States, the Committee shall inform him thereof in writing, and, if the nature of the offence in its opinion require it, may suspend him from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding six months, or request him to resign.

REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

FOR THE YEAR 1895.

To the Members of The Union League Club:

In conformity with By-Law No. 7, the Executive Committee respectfully submits the following report:

MEMBERSHIP.

The total membership on January 1, 1896, consisted of 1593 members, as follows:

	Resident.	Non-Resident.	Resident.	Non-Resident.

Total			1,593
Entitled to qualify			1
Vacancies			6
Limit			1,600

The number of applications for membership, after all vacancies have been filled, is 609.

The Executive Committee renews the recommendation made by it last winter, that two hundred additional members be admitted.

FINANCES.

Notwithstanding the financial distress caused by the panic of 1893, whereby the incomes of a majority of our citizens were impaired, it is gratifying to be able to state that the gross revenues of the Club for the year 1895 are in excess of 1894. Under the careful, judicious, and painstaking management of the House Committee the expenses of the Club have been kept within the appropriation and a balance remains in the Treasurer's hands.

For a more detailed statement reference is made to the report of the Treasurer, submitted herewith.

In compliance with a resolution of the Club, adopted June 13, 1895, by which the sum of $60,000 was placed at the disposal of the Executive Committee for such repairs and improvements to the Club-house as in its judgment were necessary and expedient, the Committee reports that it has made the following expenditures:

Electrical work and re-wiring the Club-house for electric lighting, necessary to secure the safety of the building from fire	$4,146 15
Re-decorating and restoring decorations New Café, Main Hall, Library, Art Gallery, etc.	9,211 01
Renewals and additions to plumbing	4,000 60
Carpets and upholstering	3,885 09
Alterations and repairs, furnishing new Café, new awnings, etc.	5,543 72
New passenger and freight elevator plants	4,700 00
Sundry items	1,935 30
Total	$33,421 87

In consequence of the lateness of the season before satisfactory conclusions and estimates could be obtained for the installation of an electric light plant, it was decided to defer commencing work until next spring.

Great credit is due to the House Committee for the appropriate suggestions made to this Committee with respect to the creation of the new Café and Grill Room, the complete restoration of the Reading Room and Main Hall, the re-embellishment of the Alcove Dining Room, and the contracts for re-wiring the Club-house and the exterior ornamental ironwork forming the new Porte-cochères. This has been managed with economy and good taste and we believe that the result is entirely satisfactory not only to the Executive Committee, but to the members of the Club as well.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

As the administration of the duties of the Committees on Admission, Art, Library and Publications, and Political Reform are the subjects of special reports to the Club, they require no consideration by this Committee except to congratulate them and the Club on the admirable manner in which their duties have been performed.

Upon the nomination of this Committee, the Club has elected Mr. William Winslow Sherman a member of the Finance Committee in place of Mr. William H. Lee, resigned.

DEATHS.

With sorrow your Committee is called upon to place on the roll of departed members, who have passed away to swell the unknown majority, the names of:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY AND PUBLICATIONS.

NEW YORK, January 9, 1896.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Library and Publications for the year 1895 begs to present to the Club its annual report. It acknowledges the receipt of the appropriation of $4500.00, a detailed account of which is furnished below.

The Committee recalls with pleasure that at its invitation the Hon. John Sergeant Wise delivered his lecture on "Cavaliers and Puritans" before the Club on Saturday evening, March 2d, which was fully attended, and was received with so much satisfaction that it was decided to meet the demand by publishing the lecture in pamphlet form.

At the invitation of the Committee, General Horace Porter delivered a lecture entitled "Appomattox" before a crowded audience on the 21st of November. This admirable address, which accurately and vividly recalled the great surrender, was supplemented with relics of the unique occasion, courteously loaned by their several owners.

During the year liberal contributions have been added to the Library, for which public acknowledgment is now made; especially for the gifts of the Hon. Henry Bedlow, Messieurs Samuel P. Avery and David Milliken, Jr.

The purchases for the Library have been conducted with a view to strengthening it in certain directions; particularly in Political Economy, Finance, Philosophy, Science, Books of Reference, and Fiction, —the Committee keeping in view the object of a club library, that it should meet the ordinary demands of the members using it. To this end attention has been given to the selection and purchase of works of fiction; more, perhaps, than readers of serious literature might approve. Purchasing rather than borrowing has been adopted, because of the unavoidable delays which follow members' applications for new novels from the Mercantile Library. Between the application to the Mercantile Library for a novel, and the time of its receipt, a week or ten days is needed; and if the book is a popular one, for which there is a continuing demand, its exacted return to the Mercantile Library causes an inconvenience that is obvious.

During recent years new publications of a serious character, as histories of the Napoleonic era, works on science and ethics, also books of reference, have largely increased. In acquiring for the Library of the Club such of these as are of the highest contemporaneous interest, the Committee has purchased with the restrictions in mind that the Club's shelf space is too limited for any but the most desirable. The problem of shelf space is constantly obtruding. The Committee hopes to discover an acceptable method for shelving, not only the new purchases, but also the books at present shelved too near the floor to be within comfortable reach.

The sum of money at the disposition of the Committee during 1895 for the purchase of books (after paying for newspapers, periodicals, and bindings) has been $1201.90; with this sum 706 volumes were purchased. In addition to those purchased, the gifts of 153 books make the accessions of the year 859 volumes to the shelves of the Library.

The Committee reports with pleasure the increased use of the Library. There are no statistics to show this exactly; but it may be stated that during the winter months the Library is visited daily by about one hundred readers.

The subject of lighting the Library is still under discussion. It is thought, for the comfort of the habitués, that the lighting should be both electric and gas. It is desirable to place electric lights above the shelves for the titles, but to be used only in their search; and to increase the lights over readers' chairs. By this disposition of lights the Library need not be illuminated for reading except at the points most convenient for the readers.

The increasing use of the Library and the additions of late years require a new catalogue. The Committee believes that a card catalogue could be more comfortably used than the present bound book, which has served its purpose for many years, and is now so interleaved that its original text is nearly duplicated in manuscript. The present size of the Library, 10,516 volumes, would warrant the employment of what is known as the card catalogue system.

The Committee has not lost sight of the interest the Club has always entertained for the literature of the Rebellion. With this in view, there have been purchased the histories of the New York regiments, as well as those of adjacent states, as far as attainable.

It has been urged upon the Committee to preserve in the Club, for reference, bound files of certain daily newspapers and of certain illustrated weeklies; but the truly ephemeral character of the wood-pulp paper now used by nearly all journals, renders such acquisitions of more than doubtful value. The Sunday issues, as spread on the Club tables, are too frail to withstand any but the most careful handling for even one day; indeed, the worthless paper now used in many new books is causing well grounded solicitude for the future of much of our literature. The Committee has purchased, however, for consultation, a complete file of the Illustrated London News 97 volumes, (105 volumes bound in 97,) from its first number in 1842 to date.

In the Reading Room, the distribution of lights, the additional chairs, and the newspaper files and racks; the arrangements for periodicals and magazines; also the keeping of back numbers of the daily papers for members, are changes that are giving satisfaction.

Attention is invited to the detailed account of the moneys received and expended; to the titles of the additions to the Library; also to the lists of newspapers, periodicals, and annuals, which number 259 separate titles, taken by the Club.

HORACE B. FRY,
Chairman Committee on Library and Publications.

T. MONROE DAVIS,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ART, 1895.

NEW YORK, January 9, 1896.

To The Union League Club:

The Committee on Art of 1895 in presenting its report begs leave to refer to what it has accomplished, and also to submit certain recommendations regarding future exhibitions.

For the last few years the Galleries have from time to time been hung with works of art representing the masters of all great schools and periods, both American and foreign, the quality of which has been so high as to make The Union League Club Exhibitions the greatest artistic events of the season. Indeed do the majority of our members appreciate the fact that, while not an art club, the loan collections displayed each year are the finest held in this or any other country, drawing as they do upon the best artistic talent of the world. With this in mind the Committee arranged six exhibitions, which it believes have not fallen short of the high standard set by its predecessors. These collections, which the Club insured for over $1,100,000.00, were seen by upwards of ten thousand ladies besides being opened on Sunday afternoons to the artists, and on two occasions to the art students of New York.

The first exhibit arranged by the Committee was that of February, 1895, and consisted of examples by American painters born prior to the nineteenth century, as well as a collection of Posters, which filled the Meeting Room. Each of these combined displays was, we believe, the first of any importance ever held in the United States, and excited widespread notice. Another feature was the opening of the Meeting Room, now the Café, to members and their friends on the Saturday evening following, when the Committee provided music and arranged that those desiring supper could order it from a special menu.

The March display was also a double one, the Galleries being hung with a rare collection of American and foreign works, while the walls of the Meeting Room were covered by the finest gathering of bas-reliefs ever exhibited in this city, for which credit is due the American Sculpture Society. The Meeting Room was again open on Saturday evening and proved a great attraction.

The April exhibition consisted as usual of two parts, the paintings being by early American artists, continuing on from where the February group left off. This American series, exciting as it did the greatest interest among artists and amateurs, has led to the realization of the fact that America has, or at least has had, a school, and already the collector is turning his attention to this class of pictures, which has been too long neglected. The walls of the Meeting Room were also hung with the most complete and beautiful collection of early Japanese prints ever shown in this country, for which the Club is indebted to Mr. Samuel Coleman. The music, etc., on Saturday evening was also continued, the great number of visitors proving the popularity of this innovation.

During the summer the Meeting Room was changed into a Café, and, as it was not finished in time, the November exhibition was confined to the Art Gallery, where our fellow-member, Mr. W. H. Fuller, arranged that beautiful collection of paintings by Troyon and Daubigny, entitled "Two Barbizon Painters," which aroused such great enthusiasm among lovers of art.

This was followed in December by a general exhibition in which there were some of the finest examples of great painters ever placed side by side. In addition there was hung in the small Gallery a group of paintings representing various aspects of the siege of Charleston, which are of great historical as well as artistic value.

The January exhibition is as usual an American one, which we let speak for itself.

The expenses for the year ending December, 1895, have been $3,264.37.

The four portraits ordered last year have been delivered and the Club has also acquired that magnificent landscape, "California," by the late George Inness, a full length portrait of Daniel Webster, painted from life by Alfred Gallison Hoit, and a portrait of our ex-President, John Jay, painted by Jared B. Flagg.

In regard to the recommendations previously mentioned the Committee believes that it is almost too much to ask that six or more collections should be arranged for annually, and suggests that in lieu thereof, three only be provided for, wherein the social and artistic features shall be combined, say in November, January, and March, and that the Saturday evening entertainments, which can be arranged by the House Committee and the Committee on Art, be continued. We also respectfully submit another recommendation which was earnestly advocated by the preceding Committee, namely, that whatever portraits shall in future be painted for the Club be done from life. We further recommend that a fixed appropriation may be set aside to procure such pictures by American artists as the Committee may approve.

HARRY W. WATROUS,
Chairman.
